bio.

Hi, I'm Andrew. I'm a Front-End Web Developer and Musician with a passion for creativity, user experience, and attention to detail. With almost a decade's worth of experience in performing, songwriting, music production, and operating a small business, I use my enthusiasm for creativity and collaboration, in order to build user-friendly, responsive and accessible web applications. Sometimes, I write rock songs.
